

Application fee (for non-personal information only, see below for definitions)

To cover the application fee:

I attach a cheque/money order for $30, made out to the Wheatbelt Development Commission.

I understand that before I obtain access to any documents I may be required to pay processing charges, and if so I will receive an Estimate of Charges.

Additional information

It is necessary for the applicant to provide sufficient information to enable the correct document(s) or information to be identified. The Wheatbelt Development Commission FOI Coordinator can assist the applicant throughout the process. For help, please phone (08) 9622 7222 or email teresa.drew@wheatbelt.wa.gov.au. A valid application will be dealt with as soon as possible, or within 45 calendar days of being received.

Fees and charges

The Commission may seek charges for postage, special arrangements for access or for specialised access such as reproductions. These charges may be waived or reduced if the applicant is unable to afford them or currently holds a valid pensioner concession card. Proof of eligibility must be provided.

The $30 fee for making an application to access non-personal information cannot be reduced.

Personal and non-personal information

Personal information, as outlined in the FOI Act, means information or an opinion, whether true or not, and whether recorded in a material form or not, about an individual, whether living or dead:

- a) whose identity is apparent or can reasonably be ascertained from the information or opinion; or
- b) who can be identified by reference to an identification number or other identifying particular such as a fingerprint, retina print or body sample.

Lodging applications at the Wheatbelt Development Commission

You can submit this form by any of the following methods:

Email: teresa.drew@wheatbelt.wa.gov.au
(Please add 'FOI Application' in subject line)

Mail: FOI Coordinator
Wheatbelt Development Commission
PO Box 250
Northam WA 6401

An application to access and/or amend personal information means documents that contain personal information about the applicant, but no personal information relating to other people. If the subject is a deceased person, the closest relative may apply to amend the information on their behalf. The Department may request proof of the applicant's identity.

An application to access non-personal information means a request to access documents that may contain information relating to another person and their personal affairs.
